

Horse Buffet

Down:

1. hay with high protein
2. main energy source
3. a by-product of sugar beets
5. alfalfa formed in the shape of small squares
6. for vital body functions
9. feeds that have a high nutritional value in a smaller portion
10. to prevent dehydration
13. a high fiber hay, looks like cat tails
16. hull of wheat; high in phosphorus

Across:

4. should be boiled if fed whole
7. build maintain and repair
8. carrots, apples, swedes, turnips, all fall in this category of feed
11. salt, iodine, calcium are grouped as...
12. provides two times the amount of energy than carbohydrates
14. long slender golden kernel
15. also known as maize
17. describes a horse that eats up what is given and thrives