

Club: _____

Topic: _____

Central Ontario Region Quiz Project Evaluation Form

Evaluation Criteria	Poor - 2 Points	Average - 4 Points	Good - 6 Points	Excellent - 8 Points	Total
Content & Creativity	The project is a simple collection of other people's ideas, images and materials.	The project is an extensive collection of information, ideas and materials from existing sources.	The project, while based on an extensive collection of information ideas and materials from existing sources, also identifies new insights into the subject.	The project is an exploration of information, ideas and materials from existing sources plus experts and current research.
Subject Knowledge	Some material is confusing or incomplete.	Subject knowledge is evident.	Subject knowledge is evident through most of the project. Most information is clear, appropriate and correct.	Understanding is evident throughout the project. All information is clear, appropriate and accurate.
Organization and Presentation	Information is not presented in a logical sequence. Presenters are not informed enough to answer questions about the project.	Information is generally presented in a logical sequence but information is unclear or difficult to follow at times. The presenters understand the material and are able to answer most questions.	There is a clear, logical sequence of information that is easy to follow. Presenters are very knowledgeable and can answer questions about the project as well as its goals and objectives.	There is a clear, logical and intuitive sequence of information that is easy to follow. All information is accurate. Presenters are extremely knowledgeable and are able to answer all questions with significant insight.
Problem Solving	There is no evidence of connections made or analysis of the topic.	There is some exploration of the topic's importance to the equine industry and simple connections have been made to a particular situation.	Analysis has found new ideas, connections or insight to application in the equine industry/sport.	New ideas, connections or application in the equine industry/sport challenges the audience to ask questions and apply the subject matter.
Use of Media	The project uses little variety in the presentation of materials. Written materials are too long and difficult to read.	The project uses written and pictorial materials. Some use of other media. Written material is extensive but easy to read.	The project uses a variety of media (objects, written and pictorial) to inform and communicate. There is a good balance of written and other materials.	The project uses a variety of media in a very effective and challenging manner to actively involve the viewer. There is an excellent combination and balance of media.

Evaluation Criteria	Poor - 0 Points	Average - 1 Point	Good - 3 Points	Excellent - 5 Points	Total
Handouts	None provided.	A simple handout is provided with a few key points.	A clear summary of information is available.	A comprehensive handout about the project is provided with reference to further information.
Bibliography	No list of sources is available.	A list of sources is displayed but not complete.	A written bibliography is displayed and presenters were able to clarify and provide additional information.	A comprehensive and complete list of sources is displayed that includes (at least) the title, author, publisher and web addresses where necessary.
Other Comments:

Evaluation Criteria	Judge 1	Judge 2	Total points
Content and Creativity
Subject knowledge
Organization and Presentation
Problem Solving
Use of Media
Handouts
Bibliography
Total Points

Overall Score:

--