Chaperones are expected to be familiar with the roles and responsibilities of being a chaperone. While directed at Chaperones for international events, the CPC document on chaperones is an excellent reminder at this level:

<http://canadianponyclub.org/download.php?file=1384051982100.pdf&name=Coach%20and%20Chaperone%20Responsibilities&type=application/pdf>

Chaperones require a valid police record check with vulnerable sector screening. Please ensure this is received at the CPC National Office before the event. The letter to take to your police services office may be found at:

<http://canadianponyclub.org/download.php?file=138406516680.pdf&name=Volunteer%20Police%20Check%20Request%20Letter&type=application/pdf>.

It is appreciated that chaperones will volunteer in various capacities throughout the weekend, to support the event. Please indicate your preference(s) for volunteering:

- Knowledge of horses (eg. tack check)
- Knowledge of shows (eg. scribe)
- Willingness to lend a hand where needed (eg. food)
- Computer skills (eg. scoring)
- Other _____
