4. RESPONSIBILITY

4.1 The Canadian Pony Club Inc. Board of Directors is responsible for this policy, and the National Chair is responsible to ensure its implementation.

4.2 The Canadian Pony Club Inc. will act quickly on any complaint of harassment with the goal of resolving the situation fairly and of preventing future occurrences, including determining and enforcing appropriate discipline, if required.

5. COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

5.1 All complaints of violations under this Harassment Policy shall be handled under the procedures set down in the Canadian Pony Club Inc. "Procedures for Handling Breaches of the Code of Conduct". Sections of the Canadian Pony Club Inc. Code of Conduct which may be violated by a breach of this policy include but are not limited to sections 2.01(b), (c), (d), (e), (h), (k), (l), 2.02(a), 2.03(a), (c), (d), (e), and (i).

5.2 Due to the particularly sensitive and private nature of many harassment complaints, wide distribution of evidence could in itself constitute further harassment. Therefore, care must be taken in maintaining reasonable privacy throughout the complaint process. In particular, the number of people who are given access to sensitive evidence should be kept to a minimum and Branches or Regions when considering a harassment complaint as required by Canadian Pony Club Inc. Bylaw 6.02 may be asked to do so without evidence if the alleged violation occurred outside the normal scope of their authority.

5.3 A person who thinks he or she has been subjected to conduct which constitutes harassment under this policy (the "complainant") is encouraged to make it known to the person responsible for the conduct (the "accused") that the behavior is unwelcome, offensive, and contrary to this policy.

5.4 If confronting the accused is not possible, or if after confronting the accused the conduct continues, the complainant should proceed as indicated in the Canadian Pony Club Inc. "Procedures for Handling Breaches of the Code of Conduct".

6. REVIEW AND APPROVAL

6.1 This policy was approved by Canadian Pony Club Inc. Board of Directors on November 11, 2001.

6.2 This policy shall be reviewed by Canadian Pony Club Inc. Governance Committee annually.
